Philpot: -- It ought to be no marvel unto you to see Gods truth through violence oppressed; for so it hath been from the beginning from time to time, as it appeareth by stories, and as Christ, s true religion is now to be found here in England, although hypocrisy hath by violence the upper hand. And in the Apocalypse you may see it was prophesied, that the true church should be driven into corners, and into the wilderness, and suffer great persecutions. Rev. xU. Morgan: --Ah! are you seen in the Apocalypse there are many strange things. Philpot: -- If I tell you the truth, which you are not fjj; able to refel, believe it, and dally not out so earnest matters. Methinketh you are liker a scoffer in a play, than a reasonable doctor to instruct a man: you are unclad, and dance naked in a net, and you see not your own nakedness. Morgan: -- What! I pray you, be not so quick with me; let us talk a little more coldly together. Philpot: -- I will talk with you as mildly as you can desire, if you will speak learnedly and charitably. But if you go about with taunts to delude the truth, I will not hide it from you. Morgan: -- Why will not you submit your judgment to the learned men of this realm Philpot: -- Because I see they can bring no good ground whereupon I may, with...
