Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Open Bible Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you (Matt. 28:20). This closing paragraph of Christ s Great Commission is one of the chief martyrs of Christendom, sharing this sad distinction with the Lord s Prayer. Its terms are made to endure constant and glib quotation, while their import is often ignored, and their appeal too frequently goes unheeded. It is, indeed, a great task which Christ here entrusts to His Church; even His most ardent followers would fear to undertake it, had He not promised to be with them alway in carrying it out. We are to teach those who have been baptized all things whatsoever He has commanded us - that is, the whole truth which Christ has revealed. And this teaching is to be done in such a manner that they may observe all these things. Those who through Baptism have been grafted into Christ - as branches into the Tree of Life - are to be trained to bear fruit of His whole truth; in brief, to live His truth in faith and love. How has the Christian Church, at its best, endeavored to discharge its trust as Teacher of Christ s Truth? No doubt the Church has acted wisely in following the example of the apostles by way of presenting terse and simple summaries of Christ s truth for the benefit of the young and ignorant. These summaries have gradually crystallized into the Catechism, where the religion of Christ is viewed in Part I as a divine requirement, in Part II as an object of glad faith, in Part III as a treasure to be...
