Answer--Stephen Gulley, is my name, and a husbandman, my occupation. Q.--What age are you ? A.--Aged forty-one years. Q.--Where is your place of abode ? A.--At Smithfield, in the county of Providence, in the colony of Rhode Island. Q.--Have you lately been on board any of His Majesty s ships ? What ship ? How long have you been on board ? A.--That he has been on board His Majesty s ship, the Lizard, ever since Tuesday last; and that he went voluntarily on board for his own personal safety. Q.--What reason had you to suppose you was unsafe ? A.--On Monday night, the 5th inst., he went into the public house, at the ferry, on Rhode Island side, where he sat down and called for some drink, which they gave him; he then called for supper, and had it; afterwards, he rose from the table and sat down near the fire-place, by the master of the house, when a man, unknown t him, came and sat down by his side. I asked where he was bound; he said to Newport. The man told him he would not get there; he asked him for what reason he thought so; he replied, there were about twenty armed men in the road, one of...
