It is important that every member of the association should be present, and every Eclectic practitioner should make an effort--and sacrifice is necessary--to attend this annual meeting. From the numerous papers pledged to be read, we select a few as samples: Prof. Jno. M. Scudder--subject optional. Prof. A. J. Howe--subject: Surgical Emergencies and How to Meet Them. Prof. S. H. Potter--subject: Scrofula. A. G. Springsteen, M.D.--subject: Syphilis; and many other papers promised, with the subject not announced. Let every one come prepared with some item of interest to himself, and that will assuredly add interest to the association. Our standing in the State is assured, and to maintain our position we must sustain our District and State organizations. We have, in many localities, revolutionized the practice of medicine of former years, and to extend this influence throughout the State, should prompt...
