The merchant seeks a mar ket for his purchases where immense stocks are carried, BtlSinCSS. atl(j his choice is unfettered by any limitation but that of his own credit. No matter how favorably suuated a place may be, it can not control trade unless its merchants are in a position to meet every demand made upon them. Tucson is no more favorably situated than several other points in Southern Arizona, but the appreciation of the dynamical law referred to has given it control of the trade of this section. Our merchants realize the nature of their supremacy, and the visitor who has not closely considered the conditions, marvels at the immense stocks of merchandise they carry. The maintenance of this tenure, however, depended for years upon one firm...
