She has served as a commissioner on the National Prison Rape Elimination Act Commission and is the project director and principal investigator for the Department of Justices National Institute of Corrections Cooperative Agreement on Addressing Staff Sexual Misconduct with Offenders. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Spelman College, her Juris Doc-torate from Georgetown University Law Center. Our second witness is Troy Erik Isaac. He was 12 years old when he was first sent to juvenile hall in California. As a young slender child, the larger boys immediately began to harass him. He was raped repeatedly and received no help from the staff at the facility. The abuse sent Troy into a cycle of imprisonment that lasted 22 years, accompanied by many more rapes and assaults. He left pris-on 2 years ago, vowing never to return. And he has...
