WaterBrook Press, 2009. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Don't Let Me Godrew me in with David's flowing prose and honest descriptions (especially about himself). David and Chera's story shows how extraordinary father-daughter relationships are, whether the surroundings are as mundane as the front yard or spectacular as a mountain peak. He demonstrates how every father-daughter journey can lead to summits of new understanding, awareness and joy for dads and stepdads." Joe Kelly, author of Dads and Daughters: How to Inspire, Understand, and Support Your Daughter and The Dads & Daughters Togetherness Guide: 54 Fun Activities to Help Build a Great Relationship "As a mother of three teenagers, ages, 16, 17 and 18, Don't Let Me Go came at just the right time in my life. In our lives. Many 'parenting' books preach to the mind, story always reaches to the heart. At this point in my journey as a mother, I need a gentle nudge, a hope-filled example, tender encouragement for this rewarding, yet often treacherous climb. I am grateful for the privilege of discovering such trustworthy guides as David and Chera Pierce." Lisa Whelchel, author of the bestseller Creative Correction, Taking Care of the 'Me' in Mommy and The Facts of Life and Other Lessons My Father Taught Me "David Pierce's accounts of the adventures he took with his daughter are as refreshing, funny and exhilarating to read as the actual activities were challenging and strenuous. Each chapter is its own fast-paced expedition; each page a quick step of a fantastic journey. If I'm ever on a path up a mountain with either of my daughters or heading any place else, for that matter I hope I run into David Pierce, who can help show me the way." Dean Batali, Television Writer (That 70s Show, Buffy the Vampire Slayer) "David..."
