She was the reason his beloved wife now lay dead. The hatred that kindled within him suddenly grew with alarming swiftness. Gritting his teeth, he tried to subdue the emotion, to remember that the infant was his own flesh and blood, that he had a responsibility to love her; but God help him, he couldn't. As his loathing intensified, he knew he'd never be able to look upon the child without remembering, without hating, without wishing her dead . . .
