R. 20044: A Bill for the Improvement of the Foreign Services The committee met at 10.45 o clock a. m., Hon. William Sulzer (chairman) presiding. The Chairman. Gentlemen of the committee, we will consider this morning H. R. 20044, introduced by me, entitled A bill for the improvement of the foreign service. It reads as follows: [H. R. 20044, Sixty-second Congress, second session.] A Bill For the improvement of the foreign service. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President may make all appointments of secretaries in the Diplomatic Service, and of consuls generals and consuls to grades instead of to places, subject to the advice and consent of the Senate in each case. Sec. 2. That the Secretary of State is directed to report from time to time to the President, along with his recommendations for promotion, or for transfer between the department and the foreign service, the names of those secretaries in the Diplomatic Service and the names of those consular officers or departmental officers or employees who, by reason of efficient service, an accurate record of which shall be kept in the Department of State, have demonstrated special efficiency, and also the names of persons found upon examination to have fitness for appointment to the lower grades of the service. Sec. 3. That the secretaryships in the Diplomatic Service are hereby graded and classified as follows: Class one, three thousand dollars, secretaries of embassy; class two, two thousand six hundred and twenty-five dollars, secretaries of...
